FOOTBALL "A" SQUAD

BHS gridmen finished the 1946 season with two wins and eight defeats. Under the tutorship of I. B. Griffith the lads journeyed to San Antonio only to be defeated by the Brackenridge team. The Purples then played Lake Charles at the BHS field. The Louisiana team scored once to defeat the Beaumonters. They then traveled to Houston and Pasadena where the Purples were victors and losers respectively. The Purples were hosts to the Geese and to the Greenies. BHS downed Goose Creek and lost to South Park. The Ball High Tors and Orange Tigers were the next victors over the Purple men. BHS then met the Carter-Riverside team and the Port Arthur lads. The Purples were losers on these games which closed the season for the Beaumont team.

BASKETBALL

Beaumont High School Royal Purples finished a great season of basketball. The Purple Cagers captured the City Cage title with a record of six wins and no losses. South Park, French, and St. Anthony went under the Purple Five because of their terrific onslaught. The Purples held the opposing teams to new low score records. The Cagers wore the laurels for the District 14-AA crown, and in the district they chalked up ten and two setbacks. Both of these defeats were by Goose Creek. The Beaumonters were nosed out of the bi-district by Sam Houston who won two out of a three-game series.

GIRLS' PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Girls of Beaumont High participated in a variety of sports activities in the Physical Education classes during 1947. Misses Thelma Hughes, Ruby Lee Pye, and Vivian Liddell comprise the Girls' Physical Education staff of BHS.

Volleyball, speed ball, dead ball, basketball, baseball, tennis, golf, tumbling, ping pong, and archery kept the year's schedule full. Calisthenics completed this well-rounded program. When weather prevented participation in sports, girls studied health.

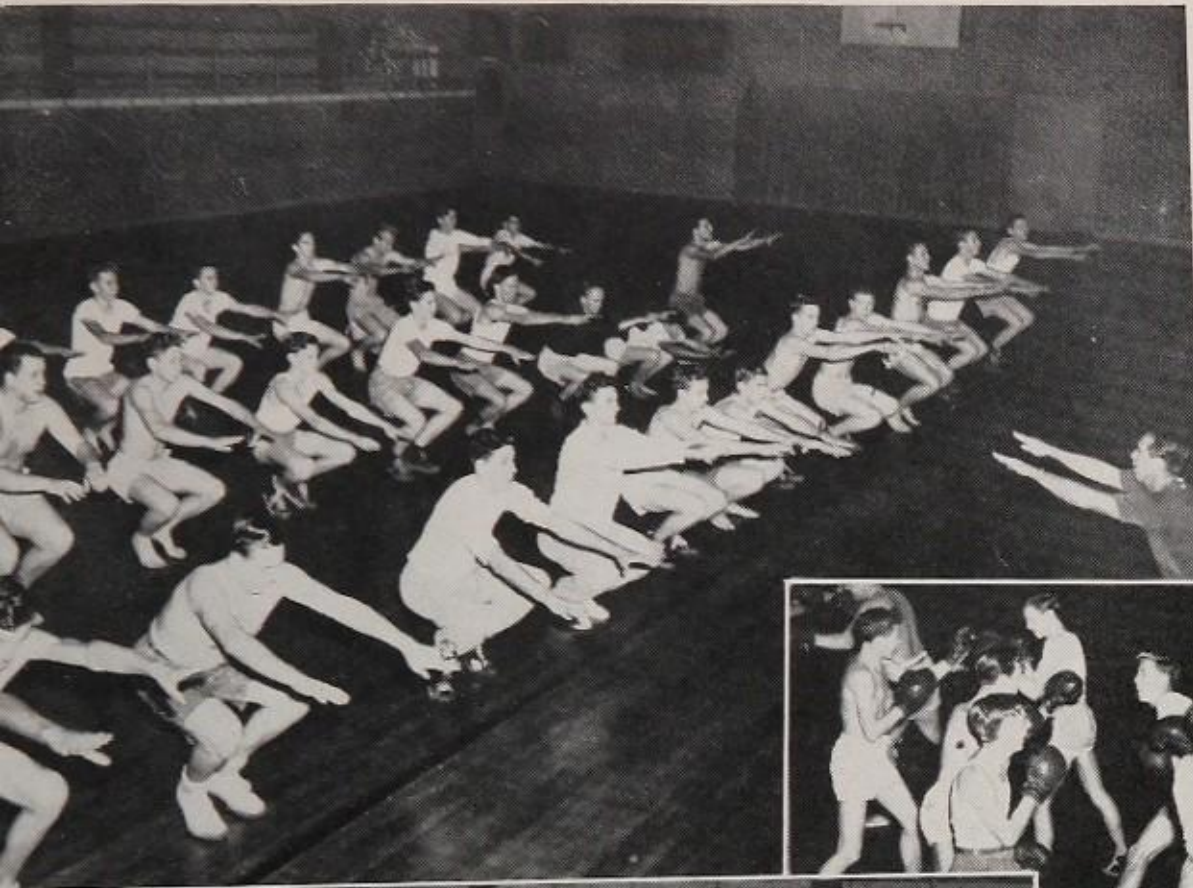

The Girls' Recreation Association was begun for furthering interest in girls' athletic activities. All G. R. A. activities are extra-curricular.

BOYS' PHYSICAL EDUCATION

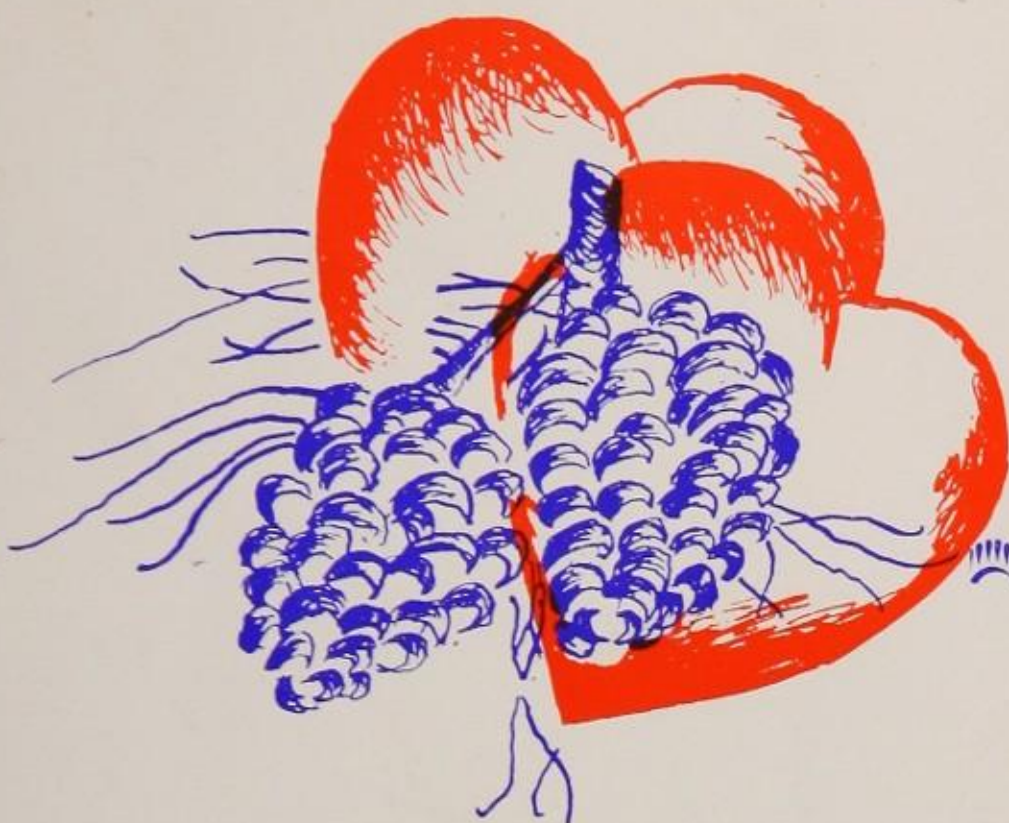

This year saw a better physical education program for the B. H. S. boys under the leadership of Coaches Moody Pickett, Raymond Alford, and Jake Wilson. The lads have learned the fundamentals of track, boxing, baseball, football, basketball, tumbling, and workouts on the parallels. Each boy has taken up various activities during the year. Many different activities have been added to the old system. Safety tests for better driving have been added this year. The classes have held inter-class and inter-mural contests in basketball, baseball, football, and track.

SCHOOL SONG

EVER LOYAL TO THE PURPLE

Ever Loyal to the Purple
All the live-long day,
Beaumont's better than the rest:
Just watch us fight—(oh say—)
Oh yes, we're fighting, for we're
Ever loyal to the Purple,
Grand old team are we,
And we'll fight, fight, fight,
fight, fight, fight, fight,
And win the victory.

—Words by Mrs. A. C. Carr (Miss Jennie Vic McCulloh)

VOICE OF YOUTH

The Voice of Youth Club, an organization of Beaumont High School sponsored by Miss Anna du Perier, makes it possible for our top history students to meet and discuss current questions both foreign and domestic.

Meetings are held each Friday during fifth period. A regular procedure is followed. At the beginning of the discussion a vote is taken to determine the opinion of the group. Then four members of the group, who have been given a month's time in which to prepare their talks, present different views. After each speaker has given his three minute address, he is in turn asked questions by the group. A general discussion of the question follows. Toward the end of the period, a final vote is recorded to see if the opinion of the group has changed.

Topics for discussion are selected by students who present suggestions to the program committee. The vice-president is the presiding officer of this committee. Other active committees include historian, public relations, membership, social, typing, and publicity. Some topics discussed during the current year were:

1. Should the Wagner Act be abolished?
2. Would a Republican victory benefit the country?
3. The United States versus John L. Lewis!
4. Should the government maintain price control?

The Voice of Youth, in addition to regular meetings, takes an active interest in matters pertaining to our school and city. Don Greenberg gave a talk over the public address in commemoration of Navy Day, and Joe Fort read the Gettysburg address on the anniversary of the battle of Gettysburg. A group of Students from the Voice of Youth took part in a forum discussion of the proposed charter for the City of Beaumont at a meeting sponsored by the Beaumont City Council of the Parent Teacher's Association. These students were: Lanora Morton, Evelyn Lorbeer, Bill Rush, Joe Fort, Murray Parker, and O. D. Martin.

In the Voice of Youth students may feel free to exercise their esteemed right—freedom of speech. Clubs of this encourage the practise of democratic principles in America.

The Officers are: President, Don Greenberg; Vice-President, Joe Fort; Secretary, Murray Parker; Treasurer, C. W. Conn, (First Semester); Frankie Moore, (Second Semester); Parliamentarian, O. D. Martin; Sergeant-at-Arms, Jerry Hardin, (First Semester); David Hearn, (Second Semester).

JUNIOR CLASSICAL LEAGUE

The Junior Classical League of Beaumont High School was organized in April of the year 1946.

This is a nationwide organization of the Latin students of the country. Texas has a federated league of which the Beaumont High School chapter is a member, having been duly and formally installed at an assembly program in October of this year by our sister league of the Robert E. Lee High School of Goose Creek.

The purpose of the organization is to promote interest in the study of Latin in the high school and to cultivate a good fellowship with the students of other schools. The league is also by nature a service club and has for its yearly plan the helping of others in its program at Christmas time and at other seasons in the giving of its services. Its programs tend to be not too serious but wholesome.

As an incentive for work and a reward for effort, the league sponsors the awarding of honors and trophies to winning students at the end of Latin week which is proclaimed by the state federation each year, usually in the month of April.

The officers of the league are Dorothy Chitwood, senior consul; Annita Sibley, junior consul; Shirley Bennen, corresponding scribe; Emilie Kyle, recording scribe; Margaret Ann Beehle, Aedile; Ross Wilder, quaestor.

Other members are Mike Baine, John Ellis, Dimitri George, Jean Giddings, Evelyn Guidry, Carolyn Hart, Nancy Mace, Penelope McClurkin, Jim McFaddin, James Parker, Donald Sanders, Robert Scott, David Stuart, Jeanne Tyrrell, Billie Jean Vandever, Virginia Winfrey, Sam Yanitsas.

Life of the Party is a lively, understanding study of modern youth. The Hughes family moves to Butterfield and begins to choose friends. Mr. Hughes is to set up a branch office for his firm; flighty, funny Mrs. Hughes, Helen Klein, has high social ambitions. Oldest daughter, Mildred, Alexine Moss, fancies herself in love with the snooty son of a bank president. Imagine what happens to their aspirations when studious daughter Jean, Mary Gambrell, under the illusion that she is in love with smooth-talking Mike Tisdale, Lee Folse, flings off her reticences and becomes the life of the party. And what a party! Dapper Teddy, Lindsay Boykin, her brother, gets into a merry mix-up juggling four dates at once. And youngest daughter Amy, Betty Cooper, a rowdy cheer-leader, falls in love with Snazzy, Bill Threadgill, for the first time. Neighbors object to the noise—to the extent of punching bewildered Mr. Hughes, Kyle Wheelus, in the nose. The police arrive; Jean is in for a hard awakening, and so are the others, including both her parents. They all become aware of the serious implications of what had seemed funny, and, of course, everything turns out all right.

Others playing parts in the play were as follows: Thelma Lou Avant, Evelyn Lorbeer, Dolores Crews, Ruby Nell Barclay, Billie Jean Wroten, Don Canuteson, Dean Grant and Donnie Thompson.

This year's Senior play, "Drums of Death," was a mystery thriller that took place in the living room of the Bailey home, a half-ruined mansion on a desolate stretch of the swampy part of the Atlantic coast.

Walter Carraway played the part of Sheldon Harley who was in charge of the Bailey property; Maross Lightfoot played the part of his fiancée, Paula Bailey, Mr. Bailey's granddaughter; Maryllin Vener was Celeste, an octoroon servant; Carroll Wayne Conn portrayed Jules, a Haitian negro; Gene Campbell as Mrs. Oakley, the housekeeper; Patsy Ruth Barron was Mrs. Gillette, Mr. Bailey's sister; Frances Messer played Eugenia Bowles, a distant relative; Marjorie Wright as Amelia Gillette, Mrs. Gillette's grand-daughter; Jerry Hardin as Newton Cooper, the sheriff, and George Yianitsas as Doctor Cameron, who was a midnight visitor and turned out to be the "villian."

Mr. Walter LaForge directed the play with Ed Frost as assistant. Pat Herring and Babara Black were prompters and Jack Aulbaugh and Russel Van-Kirk were stage managers.

This was the first mystery play that Beaumont High had seen in a long time. There was a hunchback, an apparition, and a ghost which all went to make a very successful play.

FAITH IN THE FUTURE

A great challenge faces you today, but it is a challenge which should inspire you with a faith and confidence in democratic principles, rather than to make you afraid of what tomorrow holds in store. It is your responsibility to preserve the ideals for which our forefathers fought and died. Maintain our freedom of thought religion, speech, and action. and the morrow will take care of itself. Have faith in your fellow men and in yourself, and your task will have been well done.

This Store's position as a factor of service and economy is more outstanding today than in all its history.

For forty years we have anticipated the needs of Star Store patrons with dependable merchandise priced to insure economy.

1947 will be no exception in the continuation of this effort.

We want no one to feel left out.
If your picture has been omitted accidentally, purposely, or otherwise, please insert it here.

Did you know this ?

For forty-six years sweet girl graduates have found the fine
